

Skirter/Hedger

Skirter/Hedger

OMC's Skirter/Hedger is a precision orchard maintenance machine used to shape and control tree growth along orchard rows. By trimming the lower skirts and side canopies of trees, it keeps drive rows clear, protects equipment, and maintains a uniform orchard profile. Regular skirting and hedging improves operational efficiency, enhances airflow and light distribution, and supports healthier, more manageable trees season after season.

Specifications

Copy to come

